Tuesday, April 3rd, 2012, 7-9 pm

Niles School Auditorium

37141 Second Street, Fremont CA

Come and learn how to share musical movement & folk dances with children!

Join MFMII docents, classroom teachers and school principals, college students, seniors, retired teachers, relatives and friends of children and the arts.

Jo-Ann Fread is a gifted mentor, dance teacher, and retired kindergarten teacher who taught over 30 years in FUSD. She is also the founder of Star-Brite Children's Theater which provided an opportunity for children to perform and learn how to present theatrical productions in the Tri-City area for several years.

Workshop participants will have fun learning while experiencing dance and movement from around the world.

Workshop is free to all MFMII docents, classroom teachers, and principals of MFMII schools.

Non-MFMII Participants: $10 fee (includes handouts)
RSVP: 510-733-1189 or sharon.filippi@sbcglobal.net
